

Media Center/Library: Recommended Additions May 2008

This month I would like to introduce you to a new author I discovered. Her name is Diane Noble. Her books are filled with life, love, laughter, tears, redemption, hope.....her books are more than stories; they are journeys of the heart. She has written historical mainstream fiction, contemporary, mysteries, romantic suspense, and historical romance.

The Butterfly Farm - Newly widowed Harriet MacIver has just taken on her first travel writing assignment -- rating an adventure cruise in the Caribbean. Add a group of college students, a rusting hulk of a ship that misses more ports than it makes, and a death by poisonous butterfly and you are off on a hair-raising adventure.

The California Chronicles: Be drawn into the drama of the Dearbourne and Byrne families that span several generations from 1861 - 1920s. Engrossing historical novels that have it all -- love, suspense, heartache and the triumph of the human spirit when coupled with abiding faith.
